WSU: Oral Presentation Rubric

	Oral Report Rubric
Category	3	2	1	Score
Overall clarity and organization	The information is presented in a logical sequence which is easily followed. The slides are clear, concise, and easy to read throughout the entire presentation.	The information is presented in a logical sequence; however, some slides are difficult to read.	The information presented is disjoint and/or confusing.
Accuracy of material presented	All information presented is completely accurate.	There are a few inconsistencies or errors in the information presented, but no significant errors are made.	The presentation includes minor errors on multiple occasions, or one (or more) significant errors are made.
Clear presentation and potential impact	All information is clearly presented. The presentation includes an accurate discussion of the potential impact of this work.	Most of the information is presented clearly, but the presentation doesn't specifically or accurately address the potential impact of this work.	The information presented is not clear and no discussion of potential impact is presented.
Ability to explain results in an understandable way	All information was presented at a level which was easily understood by someone with a limited mathematical/statistical background.	Most (but not all) information was presented at a level which was easily understood someone with a limited mathematical/statistical background.	Information was often presented at a level which was difficult for someone with a limited mathematical/statistical background to understand.
Ability to engage the audience	The speakers use eye contact effectively, are easy to hear, and are dynamic throughout the entire presentation.	The speakers make little eye contact or are hard to hear/monotone at times.	The speakers make little eye contact and are hard are hear/monotone at times.
			Total Score =	